RESONANCE

DONALD VEGA/Spiritual Nature: Even if you don't know what you are getting into, would you, as a real jazzbo, pass up the chance to hear a date that features McBride, Wilson and Nash prominently in the credits? Ron Carter's piano man brings his native Latin edge to the proceedings as the group shape shifts from track to track with high quality being the only consistent. A delightfully in the pocket date full of old man jazz atavistic genes that have been brought into the present, Vega knows how to hit to all fields with vigor and style. The frippery isn't needed when the talent is in the grooves and this date has talent dripping from the grooves. A winner throughout.
